

A detailed technical line drawing of a transmission assembly, showing various shafts, gears, and housing components. Two specific locations are highlighted with brackets and labels. The first label, 'Input shaft speed sensor', points to a sensor mounted on the input shaft. The second label, 'Output shaft speed sensor', points to a sensor mounted on the output shaft. The drawing includes various bolts, nuts, and seals, and is presented in a clean, black-and-white technical style.
