

A technical line drawing showing the installation of a side airbag module. The module is a rectangular panel being attached to the side of a car seat. A hand is shown at the top, pulling a strap that is secured to the module. A tapping screw is used to fasten the module to the seat back frame assembly. A cable is connected to the bottom of the module. Large curved arrows indicate the rotation of the module into its final position.

Side airbag module

Tapping screw

Seat back frame assembly

ACC01974 AD