

A technical line drawing of a mechanical assembly. The drawing shows a complex structure with various components. A thick black line highlights a specific part of the assembly, which is identified by the label 'Strap guide'. Another label, 'Strap', points to a component on the left side of the drawing. The drawing includes various lines, curves, and a circular feature at the top. The overall style is that of a technical manual or a patent drawing.

Strap

Strap guide

AC604254AD